

Dr Lowell Keppel, DC

Dr. Lowell Keppel has been in private practice for over 37 years and has successfully integrated nutritional and herbal therapeutics into his holistic approach. He operates a cash practice. Dr. Keppel has certifications in Acupuncture, Neuro-Emotional Technique and Herbology. He has been a Standard Process West mentor working with practitioners since 2010. Dr. Keppel teaches seminars on Muscle testing developing Muscle Response Analysis (MRA), The Nutritional Exam, Observational Finding, and Nutrition for the Musculoskeletal Practice (how to support the Chiropractic adjustment with Standard Process Supplements) and is proficient in the Heart Sound Recorder interpretation of graphs. He can help you trouble shoot the challenging patient cases. He is open to helping you with any case, from challenging cases to the daily routine patient cases. Being a Dr. Royal Lee geek, Dr. Lee's philosophy is the basis for his approach to nutritional protocols.
